

RESEARCH MENTOR TRAINING SPRING 2020

The Training

- Based upon a proven-effective curriculum developed at the University of Wisconsin
- Over 100 faculty at Penn have participated since 2012
- Outstanding evaluations and recommendations for colleagues to participate
- Interactive sessions designed to enhance skills in being an effective mentor
- Opportunity to learn from experienced colleagues
- Focuses on enhancing communication, aligning expectations, fostering independence, and promoting self-efficacy among mentees
- No cost to participants
- Co-facilitated by Frank McGowan, MD and Emma Meagher, MD

Eligible Participants

- Faculty at the Assistant Professor or higher appointment
- Actively mentoring research trainees
- Able to commit to attendance at all sessions

2020 Cohort Begins Jan 28

- Four Tuesdays from 12 – 2 pm in 8030 Maloney Building, HUP
- January 28, February 4, 11, and 18

Apply by Jan 2

Interested faculty should complete the application form

Questions?

Contact facilitators emma@upenn.edu & mcgowanf@email.chop.edu